

A CALL FOR AWARDEES

Honoring students who make outstanding contributions to humanitarian service in 2007

Youth Achievement Award

In association with Dr. Elaine Valdov, Secretary General,
Youth Assembly at the United Nations
August 12-15, 2007

What is the Youth Achievement award?

The U.N./YOUTH ASSEMBLY Youth Achievement award is given to 16-18 years old H. S. students who have significantly contributed to humanitarian goals. We ask YOU to choose a recipient who will represent your organization/association/institution.

- All awardees and their organization/association/institution will be listed on the website of our YA: www.faf.org/hl\_youthassembly.htm
- All Awardees will be sent an Achievement Award Certificate; their names may also be forwarded to local media.
- Awardees invited to a ceremony with Olympic Medalists.
- All awardees invited to apply for YA participation

All currently enrolled high school junior and seniors 16-18 years old nominated by their organization/association/institution are eligible.

How can I be nominated?

All YA achievement award recipients must be chosen by a teacher/educator or a community supervisor.
On a separate sheet, please complete and submit the following:

Recipient/Awardee:

Full Name:

Contact Information (phone, fax, e-mail):
Institution/organization (address and phone/fax):

Age:

Grade:

Person Submitting the Nomination:

Full Name:

Contact Information (phone, fax, e-mail):

- How do you know the awardee?
- Why is the recipient appropriate for the Achievement Award (list accomplishments, talents, personal qualities)?
- How would the Achievement Award contribute to the student's future growth?
- Provide us with the contact information for local media.
- Nominator's signature and Date of Submission

NOTE: All award recipients will be sent their certificate by mail. Awardees will be highlighted on the website throughout the YA events at the United Nations. If attending, awardees should travel with a chaperone and are responsible for their own travel and accommodation expenses during the Youth Assembly activities at the United Nations. All events at the U.N. are free of charge beyond a small registration fee.

Deadline: 31 May 2007
