

JOIN US FOR THE EXHIBIT'S OPENING RECEPTION:

THURSDAY, MARCH 4th @ 2:00 PM PENN STATION, MAIN LOBBY

1515 North Charles Street, Baltimore, MD

The event will celebrate the mural and include a live performance of Baltimore, the song that inspired the project. Light refreshments will be provided.

The Baltimore Song Mural will be on display at Penn Station throughout March 2010. The mural was created by students in MICA's Finding Baltimore course in Fall, 2009 to represent the lyrics and images from the song Baltimore, originally written by Saleem Heggins and Caleb Stine for WTMD radio's Baltimore Music Project. The mural is symbolic of the life and spirit of the city, and is meant to welcome and inspire both residents and visitors alike.

This project was sponsored by the University of Baltimore's Baltimore Renaissance Scholars Seed Fund. For more info, please contact Christina Ralls at cralls1@gmail.com.
